Blagg Scores Gamely-Consistent in a Canter vicence Wins-Burlew Names a Price for Chapultepec but Does Not Wish to Sell.

New Orleans, La., February 21 .- The warm, sunshiny weather and the constant use of the harrows had dried the track considerably today, but it was still slow and soft, as evidenced by the poor the different races were run in. Only an ordinary program was offered, but a good attendance wit nessed the sport.

Fred Burlew was today requested to set a price on his Derby candidate, Chapultepec, and reluct-antly did so, by answering the prospective purchaser: "I would not think of taking less than $30,000 for him." J. H. Clark was the man who asked Burlew to set a price on the colt. Later Burlew stated that had Clark began counting him out the money he would have repudiated the sale. Mr. Burlew thinks that Chapultepec will be the champion three-year-old and confidently counts on beating Colin in their first meeting. "Some persons are under the impression that my horse can't run in the mud," said Burlew, this afternoon, "but that is a mistaken idea; I worked him in the going some time ago and instructed O'Neill to let him turn a half in about 52 seconds, but the best he could be held to was 471.

The principal incident occurred in the sixth race when Royal Onyx won and was disqualified for fouling Artful Dodger in the last fifty yards. was at six furlongs and a fair band of sprinters contested, with Handzarra enjoying favor-The McCormick filly led for five furlongs and then tired badly, and Royal Onyx bumped her sharply in passing. Royal Onyx then went into a good lead, but near the end he was challenged his mount swerved over to the inner rail but ultimately won by a neck from Merrick, Artful Dodger landing third. To some it appeared as if Royal Onyx had struck Artful Dodger. Swain, his rider. at first denied this, but on instructions from J. S. Ward, owner of the latter, claimed a foul against winner and, to the surprise of some of spectators, his claim was allowed and Royal Onys set back, Merrick being given the purse, Artful Dodger second place and Funiculaire third.

Hostile Hyphen, Miss Sain and Denigre, owned by J. M. Gorman, the Cincinnati broker, were made mediums for attempted betting coups in their respective races and each failed signally. Miss Sain and Denigre would have rendered a much better accounting but for the poor send-offs they given. Hostile Hyphen, however, had no mishaps and was badly beaten.

After many attempts Hooray finally managed to a purse when he beat Grenade in the closing W. B. Freeman, owner of the latter, bid the winner up $600 over his entered price of $400, but failed to get him.

Servicence was the most favored by racing luci in the opening race and led a big band of youngsters

Wabash Queen, under good riding, reversed her previous poor showing and easily won the third The Thorn also displayed improvement and took the second race after a sharp drive to wear down Blagg ran to his best form and wore Platoon down in the closing strides of the fifth race. Miss Sain, which finished third, was best, but suffered from a poor start. Jockey G. Swain was suspended for ten days by the starter for his failure to break with the rest of the field in the fifth on Miss Sain. Trainer H. C. Riddle was removed to an infirm this morning, suffering from a severe case of Jockey Dave Nicol has been confined to his bed for several days suffering from tonsilitis.

J. H. Clark, who recently entered the ranks of owners, claimed Rexane out of the closing race yesterday for $845 and later returned her to J H. McCormick at an advance. There were three other claims made for the McCormick filly, but got her on account of priority in having fin ished third with Miss Mazzoni.

'DARK" ELIGIBLES IN THE EPSOM DERBY. Suggestion That Lauderdale or Petrillo May Be Good Enough to Win.

In commenting on a series of articles in London Sportsman, analyzing the public form of the colts and fillies in this year's Epsom Derby, a chance contributor says:

"Since reading your admirable series of article on a 'Figure Analysis of the Three-Year-Olds,' I have been wondering whether there is any pos bility of a 'dark' Derby winner this year. first inclination was to dismiss the subject as an idle one—and so it is to a certain extent—but the victory of Common and one or two others has taught us that the great increase in the value of two-year-old stakes has not resulted in every potential Derby hero being of necessity intro duced to the public as a two-year-old. There are, however, so few stables in which the policy of giving promising young horses ample time is resorted to, so we are hardly likely to have a Derby runner of 1908 that has not yet started, unless it be at Beckhampton, where Lord Rosebery's 'dark' colt, Lauderdale, is train d. Any authentic news as to the well-being and progress of this good-looking bay son of Ladas and Avilion will be received with the utmost interest. For all that we know this colt may be the best three-year-old in training—though it is always, of course, exceedingly improbable that any given horse, about which nothing is known, will prove altogether out of the common. It is quite possible to make faulty and incorrect deductions from the circumstance that Lauderdale has not been taken out of many of his more valuable engag ments, but on that head we shall have no round to go upon before April 2 or 0, as it is the last Tuesday in March that forfelts are mostly declared for many of the principal races—like the Eclipse Stakes—in which three-year-olds are eligible to compete. It may be that Darling, who is not given to striking out his horses, has left Laud r-dale in because he has a belief in his ability to win races; or it may be that he has left him in because, not possessing any definite knowledge of the colt's capacity, he will not throw any chance away by eliminating what might eventually out to be a good horse. Nevertheless, it is true, all the same, that nothing outside the stable is known of Lord Rosebery's colt beyond the fact that when he was under the care of Blackwell he enjoyed a very tall reputation; indeed, I am given to understand he was once tried very smart indeed. "Another 'dark' colt engaged in the Derby is Petrillo, a bay son of Gallinule and Float, which vas a difficult subject to train in his juvenile days and so did not run as a two-year-old. In his gallops, I am given to understand, he goes like a good one. He is in Blackwell's stable. I was delighted to see you give a prominent place to Mercutio in your 'Figure Analysis,' as he is one nobody could help admiring. As a two-year-old there were few of his own age that had greater scope for improvement, and I shall always think Royal Realm and Olympus were lucky to beat him in the Gimerack Stakes. At that time he had only been in training eleven weeks, so that his perforwas of greater merit than it really a Bowing down. as we all do, to your wonderful talent for summing up the ability of comparatively 'dark' three-year-olds, it is delightful to find singing the praises of Perrier. Everyone would like to see his majesty owning and breeding a goo and we all hope Perrier will justify the expectations that you and other good judges have formed concerning him. All the same, I have good authority for stating Perrier will not run for Two Thousand Guineas, and whether he will take part in the Derby parade depends upon the progress now and June 3. Till we really know something of these colts and Vamose, no serviceable estimates of the three-year-olds can passed, but, as with you, it is my impression that ose will prove himself to be this season a long way the best of the colts."

BLUE GRASS BREEDING AND TURF GOSSIP

Lexington, Ky., February 21.—Out of five foals t McGrathiana Stud so far this season there are four colts. The latest are a bay colt by Cesar ion-Hulldown and a bay colt by Sempronius-Queen Isabella. Ora Bailey, dam of Sewell, is due to foal by Adam March 4. Mares at McGrathiana are going over from two to ten days this year. There have been only two slips at this farm thus far.

The good little race horse, Bondage, was sold by auction at a sale of trotters here last week for $65 to Walter Payne, Jr. He was sent up from New Orleans last year by Jim Arthur with an idea that he would do for service in the Kentucky Breeding Rureau. It was found that he was too small and the bureau refused him. He was sent to J V. Shipp at Sunny Slope Farm and the sale was made under direction of Mr. Shipp. Bondage, whatever is to be his future, has a good home.

Another thoroughbred sold at this sale was : two-year-old by Ben Holladay-Bitters. He knocked down to A. H. Jewell, who has named him Millow Mint and today turned him over to Jerry Taylor to be trained at the Kentucky Associatio

John Ireland will train a public stable this year out at the same time expects to race four or five of his own. He is dickering with Charles Berryman for the purchase of three two-year-olds at Elmendorf Farm. He has four horses in training at the local track.

QUARRELLING TURFMEN FORCIBLY EJECTED.

Regan Resents Accusation Made by Bookmaker Oxnard Regarding Running of Smirker.

Los Angeles, Cal., February 21.—George Oxnard, price-maker for George Rose, accused Frank Regan Wednesday of running Smirker inconsistently. gan resented the accusation by pulling Oxnard's glasses off and striking him in the face. Jack McDonald took up the quarrel for Oxnard yesterday in the paddock, coming to blows with Regan. They were both summarily ejected and have since beer refused admittance to the track. Oxnard has pre ferred charges against Regan for assaulting him and the case will be heard tomorrow.

Horsemen are divided in their opinion as to whether Regan was right or wrong in the matter. Intermittent showers all afternoon rendered the track muddy.

The followers of Miller recouped on their lo of yesterday, as Miller rode two winners today

Despite poor racing conditions the fields were large and unwieldy and the sport uninteresting.

The judges have concluded their investigation into the running of the horse Creston. The Prince Pepper gelding has been reinstated and shipped by his owner, U. Z. De Arman, to Oakland to start in the California Derby tomorrow.

Miller held Orelio under restraint until reaching the stretch, where he easily overtook Adelbert Belle and wor in a mild drive. Summer Cloud came fast in the stretch and took second place from the tiring maker.

Force found the track conditions to his liking and led throughout in the race for two-year-olds J. H. Re d came fast at the end and easily overhauled Inclement and Buckthorne.

Lady Kitty spreadeagled her opponents in the third race and won cantering. Taos essayed to keep pace with the winner, but tired near the end and finished outside the money. J. R. Thornby, who came here last fall with the avowed intention of winning a purse with Stoney Lee, and who has consistently backed the hor every time he started, finally saw him finish in front this afternoon. With Miller up he went to the front shortly after the start and won eased up a canter at the end.

Ben Stone, after a long rest, came back to the races this afternoon and, showing his best form, had no trouble in taking the fifth race from Dr. Simrall and Oriflamb.

Jockey Shilling rode his second winner when Escalante won the last race.

DEVELOPMENT OF A HORSE'S TEETH.

The horse has two sets of teeth. The milk teeth are temporary, and are the ones which the colt sheds, while those that come in or remain with out being shed are called the permanent teeth. The cutting of the teeth in the foal varies some, but at or within nine days after birth the foal has four front teeth, two in the center above the two below and in the back part of the mouth he is found to have twelve molars, three on each side of the jaw; last of his milk or temporary teeth, these being the four corner teeth, two in the upper and two in the

Now he has his full set of milk or temporary teeth, consisting of twelve molars or grinders and twelve incisors or front teeth, six above and six making twenty-four teeth in all. As the colt advances in age he must shed all these. After this age the colt commences getting his permanent At one year old he gets four permanent molars, two in each jaw, one on each side behind the three temporary ones. At two years old, he gets four more permanent molars, one on each side When the age of two years and nine months has been reached he sheds the four front nippers or center teeth, two above and two below, which are replaced by two permanent incisors in each jaw and at the age of three years these four permanent incisors are up in wear. At this age the first eight temporary molars are shed, two on each side of each jaw, and are replaced by eight permanent molars, which are also up, and at three years and nine months old he sheds four more teeth next to the ones shed at three years old, two above and two below. These are replaced by four more permanent incisors, or front teeth, which are as the lateral incisors, which are up in wear at four years old. . Also at this age he sheds four remaining temporary molars, which are replaced by four more permanent molars at the back of the mouth, Thus, at an age of four years, the colt has a full set of permanent molars, consisting of six on each side of each jaw, making twenty four in all. This is the hardest year on the colt.

At four years and nine months old he sheds the four remaining temporary incisors' or front which are replaced by four permanent incisors These are known as corner teeth, and should be up and in wear at five years old. It is well to be come familiar with the time the colt sheds his different teeth, for sometimes the caps of shells of the teeth do not fall off when they should. These should be watched, for if they do not fall off when they should, they greatly interfere with the animal's feeding, and should have the attention of some good yeterinary dentist. At five years of canine or bridle teeth, four in number. make their appearance, so at the age of five years the colt has all his teeth, or what is known as full mouth of teeth, numbering forty, in all,

CARMISA GAINS A RECORD.

ECLIPSES THE JUDGE THOMAS TIME AT THREE AND A HALF FURLONGS.

Sugarmaid Wins from Fantastic in Fast Time-Great Crowd Expected to Witness the California Derby Today-Meelick Arrives from Arcadia.

Oakland, Cal., February 21 .- Today's racing at Oakland was the most formful and satisfactory to the race-goers from a speculative standpoint of any during the past week.

Half of the card fell to favorites, Reoleasa, Gargantua and Sugarmaid. The last-named was backed down at the close after having alternated with Fireball as favorite in the betting. The odds about both fluctuated considerably, the market being very panicky all through. The good thing was nearly upset by one of Mose Goldblatt's unguessable representatives, in Fantastic, which just failed to get up after working through a rough trip from the rear in the final three furlongs.

The developments in the juvenile race from a time standpoint were sensational in the extreme, the official timers crediting the winner, A. B. Spreckels' Carmisa, with an American record, for the distance, three and a half furlongs. Many were of the opinion that a mistake had been made in timing the race and inquiry among several experienced trainers and other expert timers confirmed that impression.

In a majority of the races big and unwieldy fields of indifferent class horses were engaged, still the sport was excellent and was witnessed by a big crowd. The weather still continues to be ideal for racing and if it holds good tomorrow for the running of the Derby, the Oakland inclosure will prove too small to accommodate the 20,000 or more turf enthusiasts who will invade its precincts.

Jockey F. Kelly was fined $25 for cutting across in front with Mornond in the first race.

W. B. Jennings is a recent arrival from Santa He expects to ship east early in March. Anita. Meelick, the favorite for tomorrow's Derby, arrived from Arcadia this morning and was given a striding gallop of a mile.

E. J. Baldwin has just acquired the J. B. Haggin bred stallion, Sir Hampton, by Watercress-Hampton, for stud purposes at his Santa Anita farm. Disappointment is felt because Magazine was not sent up to start in the Derby and some express hope that the fast Carman colt will show up by train tomorrow.

MORE SCHREIBER TWO-YEAR-OLDS NAMED.

In all, Barney Schreiber owns seventy-four twoyear-olds, enough for any reasonable man. Nearly all are of his own breeding, but in his list are some fillies purchased for broedmares of the future after at from seven to nine weeks he gets four more in-cisors in each jaw; at nine months old he gets the their racing days are over. The names of twenty of these two-year-olds were published in Daily Rac ing Form January 7 and of twenty-five more Jan uary 9. The names of the remaining twenty-nine are here published, with the note that the name Woodwitch, given the bay filly by Octagon-Woodnymph, is a duplicate, the four-year-old chestnut filly by Octagon-Woodvine bearing that name. new name should be selected in this case:

J. K., Chicago. A bet in advance of the races on several horses with a price laid is a combination, and formerly, when combination betting was in vogue, would have been play or pay, even losing by a scratch of one of the horses. The present practice is to give the bettor a run for his money. Unless there was a definite understanding that it was a combination and not a parlay, the better way would be to treat it as the latter, in which case it would simply be a draw, no show prices being laid. This matter was dealt with in a previous reply to the bettor, where the circumstances were not clearly understood.

Winner—B. g, by Service or Balgowan—Kennesaw Belle (trained by T. T. Rector).

Went to post at 2:09. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Zick Abrams drew out quickly, but was taken back and patiently reserved in the middle running and made good finally, but luckly. Metlakatla, close up in the early running, finished fastest of all, but was pocketed through the stretch and was best. George Kilborn ran in forward and persistent pursuit throughout. Alta Spa was excessively used to make the pace and tired in the last few strides under a bad ride. Peerless Lass, away badly, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Royal Scot failed to stay after being prominent for six furlongs. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—George Kilborn, 5 pounds; Metlakatla, 1; Peerless Lass, 3.

Winner—B. f, by Solitaire II.—Oratessa (trained by C. W. Carroll).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won easily: second driving; third the same. Carmisa decisively outbroke and outpaced her opposition in a remarkable display of speed. Right Easy bore out on the stretch turn, but was seemingly in hand all the way and is evidently a coming cracker-jack. Lula G. had no mishaps and ran in forward and game contention throughout. Hazlet, from a good start, was crowded back on the turn and finished fast. Work Box, in close quarters from a slow start, lost all chance in the early running, but finished like a shot. Ornate had scant chance at the start. Scratched—(73076) on Parole, 111; 73306 Carrie Thatcher, 93; 73325 Captain Hansen, 98.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Nogo broke flatfooted and was reserved within striking distance for half the journey, then moved up rapidly at the half and was shut off on the far turn, but got up again finally and decisively. Arcourt ran in nearest pursuit of Confederate to the last turn and drew out quickly, but succumbed finally and was agame second. Benvolio, forwardly placed throughout, was a fast going third. Lone Wolf closed a gap in the last mile. Confederate was sore and retired at the end of a mile of pacemaking. King of Mist Scratched—73096 Tetanus, 92; 73230*Bose Eley, 97.

Winner—Ch. g, by Ethelbert—American Beauty, by Powhattan (trained by C. Lonie).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won handly; second driving; third the same. The Thorn, away forwardly and running to his best form, followed Risk closely until well straightened out for the stretch run, where he came fast and won drawing clear. Risk had a slight advantage at the start and, showing the most early speed, set a stiff pace, but tired in the stretch and swerved to the inner rail in the deepest going. Dick Rose, away slowly, closed a big gap and, finishing fast, ran a good race. Financier ran a bad race and can do much better. Ed Kane, away slowly and suffering from interference, ran fairly well. Padrone was knocked back soon after the start. Hostile Hyphen had no mishaps and ran a bad race. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—73144 Bitter Sir, 106; 715292Mystifier, 106.

Overweights—Ed Kane, 4½ pounds; Wausau, 1; Hostile Hyphen, 4.

73332 THIRD RACE—7-8 Mile. (66928—1:26—3—87.) $400 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Fillies and Mares. Selling. Net value to winner $360.

Winner—Ch. f, by Farandole—Peggy R. (trained by J. McLaughlin, Jr.).

Went to post at 2:53. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handlily; second driving; third the same. Wabash Queen showed improvement, closed a big gap steadily and, coming fast and gamely in the stretch, drew away in the last furlong. Rose of Pink was a prominent contender all the way, but tired slightly near the end. Mazonia, going wide throughout, closed a gap and would have been much closer up with a stronger ride. Tyrolian, after following the early leaders to the stretch, took the lead, but quit badly in the last furlong. Suffice ran a good half and tired. Lightburn was knocked back on the stretch turn. Loring quit after going a good half. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—Suffice, 4 pounds; La Veita, 2.

Winner—B. m, by Galore—Conjectrix (trained by R. J. Walden).

Went to post at 3:19. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Consistent outclassed the others, showed the most speed throughout and won cantering through the final furlong. French Num had no mishaps, was always close up and outstayed Lady Ethel in the closing strides. Lady Ethel was always prominent in the running and, with a stronger rider, would have been second. Moselle, almost thrown in the first quarter, was forced to go wide and ran a good race. Clara Huron quit after going a good three-quarters. Grace Larsen had a rough trip. Miss Ferris was in the worst going throughout. The others were always distant trailers. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Free Knight—Stella Perkins (trained by L. O. Lee).

Went to post at 3:44. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Blagg got away forwardly, but was outpaced for the first three furlongs, then moved up when straightened out for the stretch run and, gaining rapidly, wore Platoon down and won drawing out. Platoon, from a fast beginning, was in close pursuit of Fancy Dress for a quarter, then took the lead, but tired in the last furlong. Miss Sain, practically left at the post and taken in the worst going for the first half, finished gamely and ran a good race. Cablegram lacked early speed and finished well, but can do much better. Dew of Dawn ran into prominence early, but quit in the stretch. Fancy Dress showed much speed for a balf and tired.

Overweights—Cablegram, 3 pounds.

73335 SIXTH RACE—34 Mile. (66510—1:128—4—101.) $500 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $460.

Winner—Ch. g, by Golden Garter—Bianca (trained by J. C. Milam).

Went to post at 4:09. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Royal Onyx was a forward contender for the first three furlongs and dropped back, but moved up again on the stretch turn and, roughing his waysthroughout, interfered sharply with Handzarra and swerved in the final strides to the inner rail and slightly interfered with Artful Dodger, for which he was disqualified. Merrick closed a big gap and was fighting it out gamely with Royal onyx at the end. Funiculaire, away slowly, came from a long way back in the stretch and probably was best. Handzarra showed the most early speed, but quit badly in the last sixteenth. The others were always outpaced. The winner was eattered for $700; no bid.

Sea Swell Held to Be the Best Yet Shown-Bush Cup Incident.

New Orleans, La., February 19.-While no really high class two-year-old has shown here this winter, yet a large number of serviceable ones have been brought out-more than in any former year, for the reason that there are nearly twice as many twoyear-olds here as in any previous winter. It is not to be expected that Colins will come from this quarter, but every year New Orleans has developed young sters that go eastward and win more than their share of the early stakes and purses in that section. From present indications it appears as though this year's crop of local juveniles will cut a much wider swath than usual at the eastern spring meetings. With few exceptions, the writer indicated about the first of the year and before form had been shown, pretty nearly all the best two-year-olds that have started, naming as the most likely ones Pin ion, Anne McGee, Cunning, Marse Abe, Sea Swell, burg II., and one or two others

If, as is claimed, the Cella stable has not yet started its best ones, it would seem certain that the St. Louis turfman will have a formidable string of juveniles when he ships to the metropolitan cir cuit. He paid liberal prices for promising year-lings at the New York sales last summer, so that no one can grudge him the success that he is now reaping from his investment. Among the lot that have not yet started is a colt called Mentor by Blackstock. This is a growthy colt and not believing that he would come to hand early he was not en tered in any of the local stakes. Whether he will start and show his best form here is doubtful. Sea Swell, which won the Premier stakes at a half mile at the Fair Grounds, carrying stake weight, 118 pounds, in a canter from his stable mate Marse Abe other supposed good ones, is undoubtedly the best youngster shown here to date. He is a well built colt by Cesarion-Nydia, and while he may not be good enough to compete with the best of the eastern youngsters in the big stakes next season it is pretty certain he will give a good account of himself in the early eastern events.

Mr. Corrigan has a big colection of juveniles, but most of them are backward, are not being hurried and will not be at their best before the spring meetings at Louisville and Latonia. He has some very likely looking ones

Sensations continue to crop up day by day. On top of the allegation, which, however, has not been proven, that Ray Thompson, which won several races here early in the season, was a three-year old instead of a two-year-old, came a bit of scandal in connection with the alleged carrying of an electric battery on the horse First Mason on February 14. Inasmuch as First Mason fell shortly after the start and then ran away six miles, whether he carried a battery or not, had nothing to do with the result. But it certainly was a suspicious move when the horse was pulled up at the furlong post and hurried across to his stable without being unsaddled at the judges' stand. Suspicion was about the horse before the race and paddock Judge Lyles made a close inspection of jockey B. Burton in the paddock. Evidently if an electric appliance was used it must have been concealed in the saddle

Just what exact information was in possession of the officials, Judge McDowell would not disclose but it must have been considerable to warrant the denying of privileges at both tracks to trainer Bishop and jockey Burton. There have been many rumors as to the use of electric appliances here this winter, but these have related mostly to the steeplechase people and to the using of batteries on sluggish horses in their work. After a horse has been worked two or three times with a battery all that the jockey needs to do in a race to make him run is to prick him with the spurs and yell at The chance of detection in the use of electrical contrivances is so great that few trainers of jockeys would risk using them in races. It is claimed that the holding up of the license of a certain jockey at the recent meeting of the license committee here was due to the suspicion that he was in possession of a battery. The First Mason incident will have a beneficial effect as it will only frighten the few horsemen, if any there be, who have batteries, but it will stir up the officials to a closer suurveillance of suspected persons.

A sensational story went the rounds after the nning of the Bush Cup race to the effect that C. S. Bush had refused to add the plate to the race reorganization of the club, and the advent of L. A. Cella with a big controlling interest, the remaining slx original members of the old Crescent City Jockey Club find their profits materially reduced. As Mr. Bush is entirely out of the active management of affairs, no doubt he did not feel like paying for the plate out of his own pocket. As a matter of fact, it is stated that he never did pay for it, as, under the old regime, it was paid for by the Crescent City Jockey Club. After the reorganization of the club last year, Mr. Bush turned the bill for the plate into the club. There was some talk at the time of compelling him to pay for it, but it is understood that the club footed the bill. S. B. Weems.

KENTUCKY PILGRIMS TO ALBANY HOPEFUL.
